SO MANY GREAT THINGS TO SEE AND DO

Fiordland describes a vast area that includes some of New Zealand’s best known scenic icons: Milford Sound, Mitre Peak, Doubtful Sound, and world famous walking. A range of premier visitor activities: kayak, cruise and sightseeing opportunities and guided excursions provide access to the stunning landscapes.

If you’re in search of once-in-a-lifetime experiences, extraordinary sights, or quiet moments in nature then Fiordland is the place for you. Discover a place that is truly Beyond Belief.

Fiordland’s wild and majestic landscape may appear impenetrable, but a host of local operators are ready to take you deeper into Fiordland to see more and stay longer.

Known as the “walking capital of the world”, from multi-day hikes to easy day walks, Fiordland has it all.

The gorgeous lakeside town of Te Anau is the ‘base camp’ for all Fiordland adventures and offers local knowledge on activities, weather and destinations.

Activities and experiences range to suit, independent travellers, groups, families, luxury and budget travellers. On the water is a great way to explore this area with kayaking, boat cruises, jet boat, fishing, diving and underwater observatory options throughout the area. Or take to the skies and see it all from above with a scenic flight in either helicopter, fixed wing or seaplane. For land lovers, try horse trekking, enjoy our cycle trail connecting Te Anau and Manapouri, or feed the Alpacas on a farm tour. Fiordland is a dramatic and beautiful part of New Zealand, a world class sightseeing destination and a must-do for anyone exploring NZ.

RELAX

Ever get the feeling you've come on holiday but haven't had time to relax yet? Te Anau is a great place for it — offering a laid back attitude and quiet pace to take time to enjoy the magnificent surroundings.

- therapeutic massage or a hot tub can help relax tired muscles if you have just come off a walking track, or feel like some pampering
- shops to satisfy retail therapy needs
- enjoy a quiet evening meal or leisurely brunch at one of the local cafes or restaurants
- simply soak up the fantastic lake and mountain vistas with a lakeside stroll
- join a drop in yoga class
- hire a bike and try one of the cycle trails or mountain bike tracks in the area
- feel the satisfaction of achievement after completing a walk through some of the most spectacular natural scenery the world has to offer

RAINY DAY ACTIVITIES

Fiordland is well known for its rainy climate so there's no use denying it. We recommend coming to the region prepared with appropriate clothing and an attitude to enable you to enjoy the sights, sounds and experiences no matter what the weather. Many of the valley and lakeside walkways, and cruise options come alive with waterfalls in a good downpour.

- If you forget to pack your raincoat you can hire wet weather gear from Outside Sports or Bev's Tramping Gear.
- view spectacular waterfalls
- visit the Fiordland Cinema to view Ata Whenua or catch a movie
- view Department of Conservation displays and audio visual
- visit the Te Anau Glowworm Caves
- race car simulators and shooting gallery
- spend time relaxing in one of the many cafes or restaurants in Te Anau
- explore local shops
- meet the takahe at the Te Anau Bird Sanctuary
